EMAIL #1 FOR ADULTS

Hello friends (ladies...),

I hope you're all doing well!

I was thinking about a way to get together with you all. I saw some of you in the summer and it was so much fun to hang out!

But now the weather is getting colder, we're not going to be outside much. Result: we're going to see each other even less. I was thinking of a Virtual Craft Party?

It's fun! It's therapeutic! I love getting together with friends. Doing a craft while chatting, drinking coffee or tea sounds like super fun. I was thinking of having about 5 ladies at the party. If you like the idea of this virtual craft party, here are some dates, times and projects to choose from:

Please let me know if you're interested, what day, time and project you'd like to do.

See you soon!
